::JUDGMENT::

Counsel for the Petitioner : Sri P.Srinivasulu
Counsel for Respondent : Ms.K.Satya Kumari

Dated 10..2..2006

The petitioner, who was engaged as a Junior Assistant on purely temporary basis in April, 1991 in the services of the Andhra Pradesh State Handloom Weavers Cooperative Society Limited on consolidated salary without any selection and without considering the competing claims of eligible persons, has invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus to the respondent to regularize his services.

At the hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly stated that his client was not appointed after following a procedure consistent with the concept of equality enshrined in Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution and submitted that he may be permitted to withdraw this petition with liberty to his client to pursue his remedies with the authorities of the Organisation.

The request of the learned counsel is accepted and the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner to pursue his cause with the concerned officers of the Organization.
